

CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

JOB TITLE Associate Director – CUNY Higher Education Associate

LOCATION Center for Sustainable Energy
Bronx Community College

- Develop hands-on workshops in undergraduate biotechnology and collaborate with campus Faculty, Chairs and Deans to create/modify courses, which serve academia, government and local industries.
- Coordinate members of CSE's Advisory Board for purposes of research, curriculum development and community outreach
- Perform market research, establish a client base and partner with BCC faculty as consultants for new $4M "Sustainable Products Lab"
- Mentor/train undergraduate students in areas of biotechnology (e.g. genetic manipulation, protein purification, chemical biology using the 'sugar platform', biomass conversion, analytical chemistry)
- Participate in regular inter-office activities between CSE and BCC (i.e. website maintenance, presentations, marketing, etc).
- Identify solicitations and write/administer grants for teaching and research.

Master's Degree or Doctorate desired in aptitude for hands-on, technical projects

Entrepreneurial aptitude

Working knowledge of microbial fermentation.

Curriculum development and teaching experience.

$74,000 - $88,000 commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Contact:

Aaron Socha
aaron.socha@bcc.cuny.edu
401-741-2012